REGULATIONS

(1998 Revision)

1. These regulations may be cited as the Development and Planning (Tree Preservation Orders) Regulations (1998 Revision). Citation

2. A tree preservation order shall be substantially in the form set out in the Schedule hereto. Form of order

3. A tree preservation order shall define the tree, trees, groups of trees or woodlands to which it relates, by reference to a plan included in the order. Content of order

4. Before making a tree preservation order, the Authority shall- Procedure
 - (a) deposit a draft of the order with the Director of Planning; and
 - (b) serve a copy of the draft order and a notice on-
 - (i) the owners and occupiers of the land affected by the proposed order;
 - (ii) any other person then known to the Authority to be entitled to fell any tree affected by the proposed order; and
 - (iii) any other person then known to the Authority to be entitled to develop the land in such a way as might affect any tree affected by the proposed order.

5. The notice referred to in regulation 4(b) shall- Content of notice
 - (a) state the ground for making the proposed order; and
 - (b) inform the person upon whom it is served that he or she may object to the order being made or may make representations in respect of the proposed order within twenty-eight days of receipt of the notice by writing to the Director of Planning stating -
 - (i) the ground of the objection or representation; and
 - (ii) the particular tree, trees, group of trees or woodlands in respect of which the objection or representation is made.

6. If- Where no objection or representations made
 - (a) no written objection or representation to the making of a tree preservation order is made to the Authority by a person served under regulation 4(b) within twenty-eight days of the service of the proposed order; or
 - (b) any objection or representation so made is withdrawn before the end of the period of twenty-eight days,

Development and Planning (Tree Preservation Orders) Regulations (1998 Revision)

the Authority may, after that period of twenty-eight days but not later than fifty-six days after the end of that period, make the order in the form proposed.

Where objection or representations made

7. If-

- (a) a written objection or representation to the making of a tree preservation order is made to the Authority by a person served with a copy of the proposed order under regulation 4(b) within twenty-eight days of the service of the proposed order; and
- (b) the objection or representation so made is not withdrawn before the end of the period of twenty-eight days, the Authority shall take into consideration the objection or representation and may, after that period of twenty-eight days but not later than twenty-eight days after the end of that period, make the order either in the form proposed or with modifications.

Persons to be served

8. If the Authority makes a tree preservation order it shall, within fourteen days after making the order -

- (a) deposit a copy of the order with the Director of Planning; and
- (b) serve a copy of the order and a notice upon those persons who were served with a copy of the draft order and notice in accordance with regulation 4(b).

Content of notice

9. The notice referred to in regulation 8(b) shall-

- (a) state that the order has been made and that whoever contravenes the order is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of four hundred dollars, and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of one hundred dollars for each day after the first during which the contravention continues; and
- (b) inform the person upon whom it is served that if he or she is aggrieved by the decision of the Authority to make the order he or she may, within ten days after receipt of the notice (or within such longer period as the Tribunal may, in any particular case, allow for good cause), appeal by way of rehearing to the Tribunal against the decision on the ground that it is -
 - (i) erroneous in law;
 - (ii) unreasonable;
 - (iii) contrary to the principles of natural justice; or
 - (iv) at variance with a development plan having effect in relation to the land affected by the order.

Development and Planning (Tree Preservation Orders) Regulations (1998 Revision)

10. Where a proposed tree preservation order or a tree preservation order will affect or affects land on Cayman Brac or Little Cayman these regulations (including the Schedule) have effect as if references to the Authority were references to the Board and references to the Tribunal were references to the Appeals Tribunal.

Cayman Brac and Little Cayman

11. Where the Authority makes a tree preservation order provisionally under section 22(3), these regulations (including the Schedule) have effect in respect of that order as if references to a proposed tree preservation order were references to the provisional order.

FORM OF TREE PRESERVATION ORDER

(Regulation 3)

DEVELOPMENT AND PLANNING LAW

(1998 Revision)

DEVELOPMENT AND PLANNING TREE PRESERVATION

() ORDER, 199 .

The Central Planning Authority, in pursuance of the powers conferred on it by section 22 of the Development and Planning Law (1998 Revision), and after complying with the Development and Planning (Tree Preservation Order) Regulations (1998 Revision) makes the following order-

1. This order may be cited as the Development and Planning Tree Preservation () Order, 199 .
2. A person shall not cut down, lop or wilfully destroy the tree/any tree comprised in the trees/groups of trees/woodland specified in Schedule 1, the position of which tree/groups of trees/woodland is shown on the plan in Schedule 2 except -
 - (a) with the consent of the Authority and in accordance with the conditions, if any, imposed on that consent; or
 - (b) (set out any other exemptions).
3. An application for the Authority's consent under paragraph 2(a) shall-
 - (a) be in writing;

Development and Planning (Tree Preservation Orders) Regulations (1998 Revision)

- (b) state the reason why the consent is being sought;
- (c) detail the tree or trees to which the application relates by reference, if necessary, to the plan in Schedule 2; and
- (d) specify the operation for which consent is being sought.

4. (1) Subject to subparagraph (2), a person who has suffered loss or incurred damage as a consequence of -

- (a) the refusal of any consent required under this order; or
- (b) the grant of which consent subject to conditions,

is entitled to be paid compensation by the Crown.

(2) Compensation is not payable under subparagraph (1) unless the land affected by this order -

- (a) is incapable of reasonably beneficial use; and
- (b) cannot, as a result of this order, be rendered capable of reasonable beneficial use by the carrying out of any development for which the Authority has granted permission or has undertaken to grant permission.

(3) Compensation payable under subparagraph (1) shall be assessed taking into account -

- (a) any compensation or contribution which has previously been paid to the claimant or any person in respect of the same tree or trees under the terms of this or any other tree preservation order; and
- (b) any injurious affection to any land of the owner which would result from the felling of the tree or trees, the subject of the claim.

(4) Sections 31 and 32 of the Development and Planning Law (1998 Revision) apply to claims under subparagraph (1).

5. If there is any ambiguity between any detail contained in Schedule 1 and the plan in Schedule 2, the plan shall prevail.
